Biography

William Lum is a euphonium artist from Sunnyvale, CA active in the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area. He is currently pursuing his master's degree in Euphonium Performance at the University of North Texas under the instruction of David Childs. William is a member of the award-winning Viridity Euphonium Quartet, a chamber ensemble composed of fellow graduate students at UNT. He maintains a private lesson studio and frequently gives masterclasses at various schools across the metroplex.

An avid soloist, William has been named a winner of the University of Puget Sound Concerto-Aria Competition, King's Peak International Music Competition, West Midlands Brass Band Association Solo Contest, and the University of Puget Sound Honors Recital Competition. He has also finished as a finalist in the Frances Walton Competition, Bushell Concerto Competition, and MTNA Solo Competition. William has made guest soloist appearances with Brass Band Northwest, the University of Puget Sound Wind Ensemble, and Homestead High School.

William graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Music degree in Euphonium Performance at the University of Puget Sound. He was honored as one of two students in his class to receive the President's Award for Academic Excellence.
