Storm Comin'
When that storm comes, don’t run for cover
Don’t run from the coming storm, no there ain’t no use in running

When that rain falls, let it wash away
Let it wash away, that falling rain, the tears and the troubles

When those lights flash, and you hear that thunder roar
Will you listen to that thunder roar and let your spirits soar

When that love calls, open up your door
You gotta stand on up and let it in, you gotta let love through your door

Svegliatevi nel core Awaken in My Heart

Svegliatevi nel core furie d’un’alma offesa Awaken in my heart The wrath of an offended soul a far d’un traditor so I may wreak upon a traitor aspra vendetta!
My bitter vengeance!

L’ombra del genitore accorre a mia difesa
The ghost of my father hastens to my defense e dice: a te il rigor Saying: From you, my son
Figlio si aspetta.
Ferocity is expected.
God Will Give Orders/Sweet Child
God will give orders to his angels about you,
And all his angels,
All his armies sing: "ah!"
Do not think poorly of these little children.
All of them have an angel in heav’n,
And all of the angels can see the face of the Father.
Sweet child, o sweet child!
Faith, like a child, can hear the song,
A song that falls on ears of those who wait,
Like a child, for peace to come.
And trust that we will learn to show them love,
Like a child, who knows no wrong from being loved by those who’ve taught them.
Faith, like a child, forever strong.
The circle goes on.
Sweet child!
Sweet child, hear my song.
I will show you how to love!

How Can I Keep From Singing
My life goes on in endless song Above earth’s lamentations,
I hear the real, though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife
I hear its music ringing,
It sounds an echo in my soul.
How can I keep from singing?
While though the tempest loudly roars,
I hear the truth, it’s living.
And though the darkness ’round me close,
Songs in the night it’s giving.
No storm can shake my inmost calm,
While to that rock I’m clinging.
Since I believe that love abides
How can I keep from singing?
When tyrants tremble in their fear
And hear their death knell ringing,
When friends rejoice both far and near
How can I keep from singing?
In prison cell and dungeon vile
Our thoughts to them are winging,
When friends hold courage in their hearts
How can I keep from singing?

Who I Want To Be
I lead with my spirit keeping love in the circle around me (Social) Expressing my spirit (Occupational) Loving what I can see and cannot see, I take care of the vessel I’m in (Physical)
I love the me that’s under this skin (emotional) Taking care of my mind (Intellectual) Envisioning the me I want to Be (Spiritual)
Behold Man
Behold, man! God summoned, yet God bound to be the creature of his own ideas, to work His will to will the work of God in him. Behold mankind, by this divine complicity begot!

What Is Human?
What is human?
The shadow of an angel?
Or a cry yearning towards a union of souls?

Igaüks meist on pill, läbi mille vūratuid vise villistab Jumala tuul:
hoia, küll siis hoitakse sind.

Confirma hoc, Deus
Confirma hoc Deus,
quod operatus es in nobis a templo sancto tuo
Quod est in Jerusalem. Alleluia.

Confirm, O God
Confirm, O God,
what thou hast wrought in us from thy holy temple which is in Jerusalem. Alleluia.
If you can keep your head when all about you
   Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
   But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
   Or being lied about, don’t deal in lies,
Or being hated, don’t give way to hating,
   And yet don’t look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
   If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
   And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you’ve spoken
   Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
   And stoop and build ’em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
   And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
   And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
   To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: ‘Hold on!’

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
   Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
   If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
   With sixty seconds’ worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that’s in it,
   And—which is more—you’ll be a Man, my son!

All Those that Are Outside
All those (that are) outside, call them in All those (that are) outside, come inside

We have made a passage (for them), let them in
We have made a passage (for them),
   come inside.
The Pasture
I’m going out to clean the pasture spring;
I’ll only stop to rake the leaves away (And wait to watch the water clear, I may);
I shan’t be gone long —
You come too.

I’m going out to fetch the little calf
That’s standing by the mother.
It’s so young it totters when she licks it with her tongue.
I shan’t be gone long —
You come too.

we are we are all sons of fathers and mothers we are all sons singing we are all rivers the roar of waters
what is the world to us?
who can we be for the world?
there is a star at morning and one at evening they are no more the names we give them than we are everything singing beyond itself beyond the names we love (O love) to give them everything swelling beyond its powers everything lifted up in the singing we are sparks that scatter through the world from original fire we come we are the flow of sky and its unfolding we are hundreds of hoofbeats on hard ground sometimes no home for us on the earth no place to lay our heads if you could know for one moment how it is to live in our bodies within the world you ask too much of us you ask too little everything brimming in us everything dark in its barrel we are be we are become we are bless we are dream

we are all sons

J. Christine Le has served as conductor, clinician, adjudicator, and collaborative pianist in Louisiana, Michigan, Florida, and Mississippi. She taught chorus and music theory in Florida and Louisiana public schools for 9 years. Choirs under Ms. Le’s direction have performed at state, regional, and national ACDA conferences. A founding member and past associate conductor of the Orlando Sings Symphonic Chorus, Ms. Le conducted Haydn’s Die Schöpfung with The Orlando Philharmonic Orchestra in 2022. Ms. Le was the first middle school clinician for Jacksonville Sings! in September 2019, and she has conducted honor choirs in several Florida counties. Ms. Le has adjudicated choral festivals in Michigan and Florida, including the Orlando Worldstrides Heritage Festival. She has presented at the Louisiana ACDA and Florida Music Educators Association conferences. Ms. Le earned her bachelor’s degree in choral music education from Centenary College of Louisiana, studying under Dr. Julia Thorn. She completed her master of music at Michigan State University, studying under Dr. David Rayl, Dr. Sandra Snow, and Dr. Jonathan Reed. At the University of North Texas, Ms. Le currently serves as instructor of record for Camerata, teaching assistant for University Singers, and chorus master for UNT Opera’s production of Le nozze di Figaro.

Thomas Rinn currently serves as a teaching fellow in the College of Music while pursuing his PhD in music education at the University of North Texas and is director of music at St. Barnabas Presbyterian Church in Richardson. He holds a master of music education from Florida State University and a bachelor of music from the University of Texas at San Antonio. He has twenty years of public-school teaching experience as high school choral director. Choirs under Rinn’s direction have been honored with invitations to perform for the Texas Music Educators Association and for the Southwest American Choral Directors Association. Rinn’s research interests include music teacher preparation, recruitment and persistence in elective music, and social media in music education. He has presented at conferences nationwide and has recent publications in Update: Applications of Research in Music Education and Journal of Research in Music Education. Rinn is a frequent choral clinician, guest conductor, adjudicator, and presenter of teacher training nationwide. Mr. Rinn has served as president of the Texas Choral Directors Association, high school vice-president for the Texas Choral Directors Association, a TMEA region vocal chair, and currently serves as chair of the Texas UIL vocal sight-reading SOMETHING.
