All graduate and post-baccalaureate applicants select "Graduate".
Fill in the blanks with your personal information. This is the information we will use to communicate with you regarding your application, audition, admission, scholarship (if applicable), and TA/TF (if applicable).
Select the degree you wish to pursue and the instrument on which you will audition. If you are applying to pursue an academic major (i.e. Theory, Music Education, etc.), no audition is required. Academic applicants pay special attention to the NOTE, and also select your program in the “instrument/voice” section.
Indicate the date on which you wish to audition. ALL GRADUATE voice, piano, string, and percussion applicants should select the Friday, February 6th audition day, scheduled specifically for that group. If you are a singer, you may request an accompanist. If you are a composition applicant, check the appropriate box and pay special attention to the additional information on the Composition Studies website. If you are a conducting applicant, check the appropriate box. Indicate your anticipated audition repertoire. You are NOT required to perform the selections you submit, or report changes to this information prior to your audition.

For audition repertoire requirements please refer to: www.music.unt.edu/admissions/graduate-repertoire

Check if appropriate

- I will need an accompanist (provided for on-campus Friday Graduate Vocal auditions only)
- I am applying in Composition. Composition applications must be received by the first Monday in December. For more information, refer www.music.unt.edu/comp/admissions
- I will upload a preliminary video in conducting (Live auditions are by invitation only)

Anticipated Audition Repertoire:
list your anticipated repertoire here

Please Note

- Materials submitted will not be returned.
- Live auditions are preferred.
- Preference for scholarship and TA/TF awards will be given to those who audition no later than the last on-campus audition date.
Indicate degrees previously earned, GRE scores, and TOEFL score (if applicable).
