AWARD INFORMATION

All students who apply to the College of Music are considered for music merit scholarships and teaching assistantship/fellowship opportunities. If you are an out-of-state student and you are awarded a competitive scholarship of $1,000 or more from UNT (music or university), you are able to attend UNT at the resident tuition rate for that academic year, including the summer term. Non-resident teaching assistants/fellows may be eligible for an employment waiver during the semesters employed.

All applicants should create a profile in the Eagle Scholarship Portal (unt.academicworks.com) prior to TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2022. After the profile is created, applicants are automatically matched to general scholarship opportunities for which they qualify.
