In the Beginning

The First Day

Solo

In the beginning

God created the heaven and the earth.

And the earth was without form,
and void;
and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

Chorus

And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

Solo

And God said, Let there be light:
and there was light.

Chorus

And God saw the light, that it was good:
and God divided the light from the darkness.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.
And the evening and the morning
were the first day.

The Second Day

Solo

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters,
and let it divide the waters from the waters.

Chorus

And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament:

And it was so.

And God called the firmament Heaven.

And the evening and the morning
were the second day.

The Third Day

Solo

And God said,

Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear:

Chorus

And it was so.

And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas:

And God saw that it was good.

Solo and Chorus

And God said,

Let the earth bring forth grass,

Solo

the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after its kind,
whose seed is in itself,
upon the earth:
And it was so.

Chorus

And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after its kind,
and the tree yielding fruit,
whose seed was in itself,
after its kind:

And God saw that it was good.

And the evening and the morning
were the third day.

The Fourth Day

Solo

And God said,

Let there be lights in the firmament
of the heaven

to divide the day from the night;

and let them be for signs, and for
seasons, and for days and years

And let there be lights in the firmament
of the heaven

to divide the day from the night

TEXT/TRANSLATION

and let them be for signs and for
seasons and for days, and years:
And let there be lights

Chorus

Lights!

Let there be lights in the firmament
of the heaven

to divide the day from the night
and let them be for signs and for
seasons and for days and years

And let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven

to divide the day from the night
and let them be for signs and for
seasons and for days and years

And let there be lights in the
firmament of the heaven

to give light upon the earth

And it was so.

And God made two great lights;
the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night:
he made the stars also.

And God set them in the firmament
of the heaven

to give light upon the earth, and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the day from the

darkness:

And God saw that it was good.

And the evening and the morning
were the fourth day.

The Fifth Day

Chorus

And God said

Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

And God created great whales, and ev'ry living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly,

after their kind,

and ev'ry winged fowl after his kind:

And God saw that it was good.

and God blessed them, saying,

Be fruitful and multiply,

and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

And the evening and the morning

were the fifth day.

The Sixth Day

Solo

And God said,

Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind:

and it was so.

Chorus

And God said,

Let the earth bring forth grass.

And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and ev'ry thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind:

Solo and Chorus

And God saw that it was good.

Chorus

And God said,

Let us make man in our image,

after our likeness:

and let him have dominion over the fish of the sea,

and over the fowl of the air,

and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over ev'ry creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

Solo and Chorus

So God created man in his own image,

TEXT/TRANSLATION

Chorus

in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.
And God blessed them,
and God said unto them,
Be fruitful, and multiply,
and replenish the earth, and subdue it:
and have dominion over the fish of the sea,
and over the fowl of the air,
and over ev'ry living thing that moveth upon the earth.
Behold...

Solo

And God said,
Behold, I have given you ev'ry herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth,
and ev'ry tree,
in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed;
To you it shall be for food.
And to ev'ry beast of the earth, and to ev'ry fowl of the air, and to ev'ry thing that creepeth
upon the earth,
wherein there is life, I have given ev'ry green herb for food:

Chorus

And it was so
And God saw ev'ry thing that he had made,
and, behold, it was very good.
And the evening and the morning
were the sixth day.

The Seventh Day

Chorus

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the hosts of them And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made;
and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.
And God blessed the seventh day,
and sanctified it:
because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

Solo

These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens, and ev'ry plant of the field before it was in the earth, and ev'ry herb of the field before it grew:

Solo and Chorus

For the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to fill the ground.

Chorus

But there went up a mist from the earth,
and watered the whole face of the ground.

Solo and Chorus

And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground,

Chorus

and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life;
and man became a living soul.

Stars

Alone in the night
On a dark hill
With pines around me Spicy and still,

And a heaven full of stars
Over my head
White and topaz
And misty red;

Myriads with beating Hearts of fire
The aeons
Cannot vex or tire;

Up the dome of heaven
Like a great hill
I watch them marching Stately and still.

And I know that I Am honored to be Witness
Of so much majesty.
--Sara Teasdale (1884–1933)

O Schöne Nacht

Oh beautiful night!
The moon is fabulously shining in its complete splendour in the sky; Around it, sweet company of little stars.

Oh beautiful night!
The dew is shimmering brightly on the green blades of grass;
The nightingale sings ardently in the lilac bush, and The boy steals softly to his lover.
Oh beautiful night!

Warum?

Why then do songs resonate Ever up towards heaven?
They would draw down the stars
That twinkle and sparkle above;
Or Luna's lovely embrace;
Or the warm, blissful days
Of the blessed gods towards us!

Hail, Gladdening Light

Hail Gladdening Light, of His pure glory poured, who is the immortal father, heavenly blessed.
Holiest of Holies, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Now we are come to the Sun's hour of rest.

The lights of evening round us shine.
We hymn the Father, Son and Holy Spirit divine.

Worthiest art thou, at all times to be sung, with undefiled tongue.
Son of our God, giver of life alone.
Therefore in all the world, thy glories, thy glories Lord, they own.

Seek Him that Maketh the Seven Stars

Seek him that maketh the seven stars
and Orion And turneth the shadow of death into the morning Alleluia, yea, the darkness shineth as the day
The night is light about me
Amen.

There Will Be Rest

There will be rest, and sure stars shining Over the roof-tops crowned with snow, A reign of rest, serene forgetting,
The music of stillness holy and low.
I will make this world of my devising Out of a dream in my lonely mind.
I shall find the crystal of peace, – above me Stars I shall find.
--Sara Teasdale

Moonlight Sound Design

In the moonlight, time stands still.
The present melts into the past,
And my spirit communes with souls
That have passed before me.

I can never explain, can never tell you.
No!

In the night, it smells of morning.
And in the silence, flowers and birds herald the light.
Tears in my eyes, like dewdrops on flowers that,
With the light, will disappear, having been lost in Darkness.

I can never explain, can never
tell you.
No!
--Raimonds Tiguls (b. 1972)

In the Still of the Night

In the still of the night
As I gaze from my window
At the moon in its flight
My thoughts all stray to you

In the still of the night
All the world is in slumber
All the times without number Darling when I say to you

Do you love me, as I love you Are you my life to be, my dream come true Or will this dream of mine fade out of sight
Like the moon growing dim, on the rim of the hill
In the chill, still, of the night

Like the moon growing dim, on the
rim of the hill
In the chill, still, of the night.

BIOGRAPHIES

Allen Hightower is a seventh generation Texan, and resides in McKinney, Texas with his wife Dr. Kristin Hightower and their two daughters Caroline and Julianne. As the director of Choral Studies at the University of North Texas, Allen leads the master's and doctoral programs in choral conducting, and oversees a comprehensive choral program of eight ensembles. Allen serves as the conductor of the UNT A Cappella Choir, and the UNT Grand Chorus which collaborates annually with the UNT Symphony Orchestra in performances of major choral-orchestral works. As a member of UNT's Early Music faculty, he leads the vocal ensemble Vox Aquilae, an artistic partner of the UNT Baroque Orchestra. Since arriving at UNT in 2016, the A Cappella Choir has received invitations to perform for the Texas Music Educators Association in 2020, the national conference of the American Choral Directors Association in 2021, and the Southwestern Region of ACDA in 2022. Vox Aquilae and the Baroque Orchestra were featured in the 2022 virtual conference of the National Collegiate Choral Organization.

As a teacher and conductor, Dr. Hightower has visited 30 states, Asia, and Europe. His students hold positions of leadership as choral conductors in public schools, colleges and universities, and churches and community choirs throughout the United States.

Prior to his appointment at UNT, Dr. Hightower held the Weston Noble Endowed Chair in Music at Luther College in Decorah, Iowa, where he served as conductor of the renowned Nordic Choir and artistic director of Christmas at Luther. As Luther's Director of Choral Activities, he gave leadership to a choral program that included four conductors, six choirs, and over 530 singers. Under Dr. Hightower's direction, the Nordic Choir performed at the 2014 North Central Division of ACDA, recorded six compact discs, made annual concert tours throughout the United States, and toured Europe on two occasions.

From 2000-2010, Dr. Hightower served as Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at Sam Houston State University. During his tenure, the SHSU Chorale toured Europe, performed for the 2007 National Convention of the American Choral Directors Association, the 2010 Southwestern Division of ACDA, and the 2003, 2006, and 2010 conventions of the Texas Music Educators Association. His public school teaching career included tenures at Klein High School in Spring, Texas and at Odessa Permian High School in Odessa, where he led the PHS Kantorei and Satin Strings in performance at the 1996 TMEA convention.

Outside of his work in the academic setting, Allen has served as the Artistic Director of the Houston Masterworks Chorus and Orchestra, leading an annual concert series of choral-orchestral masterworks. As a deeply committed church musician, he has served Baptist, Congregational, Methodist, and Presbyterian churches in Texas, California, and Minnesota. He currently serves on the music staff of Stonebriar Community Church in Frisco, Texas, and is the Church Music Vice-President of the Texas Choral Directors Association. Dr. Hightower has served as an Adjunct Professor of Conducting at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

As a conducting student of the Texas choral legend Bev Henson, Allen earned his undergraduate degree in music education and piano from Sam Houston State University. He went on to earn a master's degree in choral conducting from the Eastman School of Music where he was a student of Baroque scholar Alfred Mann, and a master's degree in orchestral conducting from Baylor University, where he served as assistant conductor to Stephen Heyde and accompanist to Donald Bailey and the Baylor Chamber Singers. Allen earned his doctorate in conducting from the University of California, Los Angeles, where he served as assistant conductor to Donald Neuen. Hightower pursued additional orchestral conducting studies with Jung-Ho Pak at the University of Southern California, additional choral conducting studies with Joseph Flummerfelt at Westminster Choir College, and choral-orchestral conducting with Helmuth Rilling at the Oregon Bach Festival. After winning first prize in the graduate division of the American Choral Directors Association's Conducting Competition in 1997, Allen served as assistant to Paul Salamunovich, conductor of the Los Angeles Master Chorale.

Kenneth Sieloff is currently a first-year graduate student at the University of North Texas where he is pursuing a master's degree in choral conducting. Prior to UNT, Sieloff served as director of choirs at Permian High School in Odessa, Texas. In his time at Permian HS, Mr. Sieloff's choirs performed at the 2018 Texas Music Educators Association Conference and the 2020 Southwestern ACDA Conference. In 2020, Permian HS Cantus (tenor-bass choir) was selected as National Winner in the Foundation for Music Education Mark of Excellence competition, and in 2021 they were winners of the American Prize in Choral Performance – High School Division. Ensembles under Mr. Sieloff's leadership have consistently earned "Best in Class" and superior ratings in concert and sightreading evaluations. In 2017 he was named a Young Director of Distinction by the Texas Choral Directors Association. Along with his passion for working with young musicians in the classroom, Sieloff has long been dedicated to the art of conducting. In 2011 he competed in the American Choral Directors Association's National Student Conducting Competition in Chicago, IL and won first place. Sieloff enjoys serving as an active clinician and adjudicator throughout Texas, and in 2023 he looks forward to conducting the Arkansas All-State Tenor-Bass Choir. From 2015–2020 Sieloff served as artistic director and conductor of the Allegro Chorale in Midland-Odessa, TX where he implemented a thriving scholarship program for college students who sang with the ensemble. Notable performances with Allegro include Fern Hill by Corigliano, Chichester Psalms by Bernstein, Annelies by Whitbourn, and Aaron Copland's Appalachian Spring for chamber orchestra. Sieloff has appeared as guest conductor with

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin Symphony Orchestra, the Midland-Odessa Symphony Orchestra & Chorale, and in 2013 conducted a production of Stephen Sondheim's American opera Sweeney Todd at Odessa College which featured Metropolitan Opera baritone Gary Simpson. Sieloff holds a bachelor of music education degree from The University of Michigan, where he studied voice with Professor Martha Sheil and conducting with Eugene Rogers, Paul Rardin, and Jerry Blackstone. Ken loves to spend time with his wife Annie, daughter Charlotte, and dogs Lily and Sadie. He enjoys the great outdoors, including hunting, and spending time with friends whenever he has the chance.

Born in South Korea, Dong Hyun Kang is a pianist, conductor, and educator. He began his musical education with the piano at the age of seven. When he was fifteen, he first appeared in a public concert with Seoul Symphony Orchestra in Seoul Arts Center. In his piano studies since, he has performed in various venues and won prizes in national or international competitions in South Korea and the United States. Kang earned bachelor's and master's degrees in piano performance from Seoul National University. He continued his piano studies in the United States receiving another master's degree from Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University, a graduate diploma from New England Conservatory of Music, and a doctoral degree from University of Cincinnati. His musical mentors and teachers in piano chronologically include James Tocco, Eugene Pridonoff, Gabriel Chodos, Seth Knopp, Hyung Bae Kim, and Young-Mee Yun. Kang served as a graduate assistant at University of Cincinnati, teaching piano for undergraduate and graduate students from diverse musical backgrounds. In his piano studios, he taught numerous piano students over 16 years. In 2020-2021, he served as an Adjunct Professor of Piano and Staff Accompanist at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, coaching undergraduate and graduate voice students and providing accompaniments for Southwestern Singers, recitals, applied lessons, juries, and classes. Kang's musical passion is further extended to both choral and orchestral conducting: the latter is the cognate area of his doctoral study at University of Cincinnati. In 2015-2020, he served as a conductor for the choir and orchestra at Power Mission Baptist Church of Cincinnati. In 2020-2021, he studied conducting and theology of music in the Master of Music in Church Music program (Conducting Concentration) at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, while shaping theological understandings on music and its related topics as well as on his calling to live as a Christ-centered professional musician who glorifies God and serves people with music. Currently, Kang continues his conducting training, under the guidance of Allen Hightower, in the Master of Music in Choral Conducting program at University of North Texas, where he also serves as a TA accompanist for A Cappella Choir and Kalandra and sings with Vox Aquilae. His conducting teachers include Allen Hightower, Kristina MacMullen, Ian Yeung, Markand Thakar, Aik Khai Pung, Mark Gibson, Brett Scott, Annunziata Tomaro, Huan Jing, Charles Peltz, Erica Washburn, and William Drury.

Founded in 1938, the University of North Texas A Cappella Choir has a distinguished history of conductors that includes Wilfred Bain, Frank McKinley, Hal Gibbons, Mel Ivey, and Jerry McCoy. Allen Hightower assumed leadership of the choir upon his appointment as Director of Choral Studies at UNT in the Fall of 2016. His previous choirs have performed for the Southwestern, North Central, and National conferences of ACDA. Having previously served at Odessa Permian High School, Sam Houston State University, and Luther College, this conference appearance marks his fifth ACDA invited choir. The A Cappella Choir is frequently invited to regional, national, and international conferences. Most recent engagements include National ACDA in 2021 (live-streamed), 2013 (Dallas), 2005 (Los Angeles), and 1999 (Chicago); NCCO in 2008 (Cincinnati); and the International Choral Festival in 2012 (Daejeon, South Korea) and in 2009 (Taipei). The A Cappella Choir is one of ten choral ensembles at UNT which includes the University Singers, Concert Choir, Kalandra, Chorale, Camerata, Vox Aquilae, Grand Chorus, Conductor's Chorus, and UpFront!. The Choral Studies program works closely with the renowned Vocal Studies and Opera programs at UNT, creating an ideal environment for student singers.
